

Stephen Rex Goode, BSW
503 491-1982
503 267-2840

OBJECTIVE:

To use my skills, education, and training to help people realize their greatest potential and enjoy the full benefits of society.

STRENGTHS SUMMARY:

- Communication skills Two quarters of strength-based interviewing skills training working with clients in a supervised laboratory. Practicing the same skills in volunteer positions and teaching them to others.
- Familiarity and experience with motivational interviewing and the stages of change model with a goal toward prosocial behavior.
- Sign Language Beginning experience interpreting English into American Sign Language. Includes one quarter American Sign Language course work, one week American Sign Language seminar at Brigham Young University, and two years interpreting for church services.
- Case Management Clinical Skills Intake, case notes, treatment plans, familiar with computerized case management, and familiar with DSM-IV.
- Training in professional codes of ethics including concepts of mandatory reporting, informed consent, and confidentiality.
- Knowledge of human development theories.
- Familiar with assessment methodologies for risk of violence using eighteen risk factors.
- Familiar with addiction theories, psychoactive substances and their effect on the brain, other kinds of addiction, especially sexual addiction.
- Professional boundaries and modeling adaptive behavior.

EDUCATION:

8/2004 - 12/2006 Bachelor of Science Concordia University Portland, Oregon
Social Work (BSW)

Subjects: Social work practice, sociology, human sexuality, chemical dependency, literature, vocal performance, religious studies, grant-writing, and nonprofit management.

10/2003 - 11/2003 Mediator Training Resolutions Northwest Troutdale, Oregon

Trained in mediation techniques as specified by the State of Oregon Dispute Resolution Commission, including skills in active listening, goal setting, and agreement writing. Received further training specific to family mediation from East Metro Mediation through the City of Gresham.

9/2002 - 6/2004 Student Mount Hood Gresham, Oregon
Community College

Mental Health and Human Services program. Received honors and was on President's and Vice President's lists. Focus on social work and human EXPERIENCE (including volunteer):

11/2003 - Present Personal Skills Trainer Private Contractor Portland, Oregon

Teaching life skills to developmentally delayed adults. Skills include basic computer use, appropriate public behavior, apartment hunting, accessing mental health resources, relationship communications, camping, shopping, meal planning, nutrition, and responsible spending practices. Case management and transportation support.

- 11/2006 - 9/2006 Multnomah County Intern Portland, Oregon
Juvenile Justice
 Working with juvenile sex offenders as mentor and skills trainer. Helped with researching education opportunities and job search. Helped prepare clients for polygraph examinations.
- 8/2000 - Present LDS Family Services Volunteer Tigard, Oregon
 Facilitating a support group for men struggling with issues of sexual identity, sexual addiction, and sexual abuse recovery. Conducting screening interviews. Training and supervising volunteer mentors in communication skills, group dynamics, and addict support principles.
- 8/1999 - Present Inner Vessel Productions Owner/Webmaster Gresham, Oregon
 Programming, maintaining, and supervising on-line, self-help support groups for web sites that cater to people dealing with issues related to sexual addiction, compulsive overeating, abuse recovery, dysfunctional families, and cyber addictions. Working with essay authors to improve manuscripts and prepare them for electronic publication. Writing essays and compiling addiction-related materials. Working with therapists to create referral databases.
- 4/2003 - 6/2003 Morrison Center Intern Troutdale, Oregon
Counterpoint
 Tutoring high school subjects for clients/students in residential treatment center for male adolescent sex offenders. Supervising activities. Participating in groups. Processing behavior problems with clients.
- 9/2003 - 8/2004 Eastwind Family Center Intern Troutdale, Oregon
 Case management, group co-facilitation for teens with drug, alcohol, and sexual issues, client intakes, tutoring students in high school subjects, building relationships with at-risk youth through games, observing family mediation. Working in the community by going to local businesses and agencies to discuss Eastwind programs.
- 1983 - 1993 Boy Scouts of America Scoutmaster, Troop 98 Portland, Oregon
 Teaching camping and life skills to young males ages 11 through 18. Outdoor activities including camping, backpacking, fire building, and knife safety. Planning, leadership training, and mentoring.
- 7/1977 - Present The Church of Jesus Christ Lay Ministry Oregon and Ohio
of Latter-day Saints
- Executive Secretary to Bishop: Scheduling/screening counseling appointments, participating in ecclesiastical team meetings to discuss church members' needs, locating community resources.
 - Priesthood Leader: Mentoring members with addiction problems, teaching family communication skills, in-home family visits, family spiritual counseling, supervising in-home family visits, public speaking, hospital visits, assessing family needs, spiritual training, teaching, administration, teacher supervision, emergency preparedness teaching.
 - Sign Language Interpreter: Interpreting English church services into sign language.
- 9/1973 - 6/1974 Providence Hospital Intern Portland, Oregon
 Visiting patients in their rooms and offering spiritual assistance and coordination with clergy.

INTERESTS:

Weightlifting, swimming, hiking, camping, backpacking, public speaking, vocal musical performance, and writing.